Harald Luschgy

University of Trier

Optimal Vector Quantization

Abstract :

We present new results on the quantization of probability distributions or optimal vector quantization concerning universal bounds and sharp asymptotics for quantization errors (Zador theorem), geometry of optimal quantizers, random quantization, empirical quantization and greedy quantization. Radial functions play a central role.